Dear Milt:

What an unbelievably great job you did for us emceeing the Academic All-Stars event on April 23, 2007!

Your humor was perfect for the audience – they laughed a lot and that really set the right mood for the evening. You came across as a “regular guy” and you connected with the audience, which was a mix of students, parents, friends of the families and teachers. When you mentioned your kids and your travels with kids, I think everyone could relate and it was really funny.

The hardest part of the evening was the introduction of 75 students, reading short bios and keeping a complex and ever-changing program running smoothly. I was amazed at your poise. You kept the evening moving without being in a rush.

There is no doubt that I would have you back again next year, if you are available in late April. Let’s be in touch. Have a great year and good luck with your comedy career.

Best regards,
