To Whom It May Concern:

On Saturday evening, May 16, Milt Abel performed 30 minutes of solo stand-up comedy to an audience of approximately 1,000 as the opening act for a concert by the Drifters at the Santa Clara Convention Center in Santa Clara, CA.

Mr. Abel established an instant rapport with the audience and proceeded to keep it in stitches for the entire period he was on stage. We was called back for an encore and obliged with another five minutes of side-splitting stuff.

As the agency which hired Mr. Abel for our client, Beta Sigma Phi (a philanthropic fraternity), I can and do commend his talents to anyone seeking a comedian for an event as large as ours or larger. And I am sure his act would be equally well received in a smaller venue.

Mr. Abel is a solid professional in every respect. He helped make our night a complete success.

Please do not hesitate to contact me if you would like to hear more raves about this outstanding talent.

Sincerely yours,

Edward H. Telfeyan
